

My dear Mr. Bonham. Soon after receiving your songs, which we have enjoyed very much. I called at your home thinking that I could see you & pay you rather than send a ch. The lady that met me at the door said that you were not up, so I gave her the $1.50 which she said that she would give to you. No doubt she forgot my name & so I was not given credit. Yours very truly

My dear Mr. Bresee:-

I am sorry for the oversight, and that you should have been dunned unduly. I have now entered the subscription as paid.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Ernest H. Bresee,
